Totenkopf steps away from the group his movement a swagger.

TOTENKOPF

You are the one they call the Patriot?

PATRIOT

That's me.

TOTENKOPF

They say you have never been beaten in a fight.

PATRIOT

That's not true. Billy Wilkins beat the crap out of me in the fourth grade.

TOTENKOPF

They also say that bullets don't harm you.

PATRIOT

They say a lot of things. Who exactly is they?

Totenkopf nods and the two occult soldiers lift their MP40s and fire at Patriot. They watch as the bullets ricochet off of him. One of the ricochets hits the Professor in the leg.

SCHWARZER MOND

Ach du lieber Gott! Hör auf, du Idioten!

(Oh my God. Stop you idiots!)

The men stop firing.

TotENKOPF

Impressive. Is it true each of your bullets is marked with a star so that your enemies know it was you who killed them?

Patriot snap draws a pair of forty-five colt pistols and fires at the two occult soldiers. Each takes a single shot to the head and remain standing.

PaTRIOT

Huh... That usually works.

TOTENKOPF

They are no longer men. They are mostly machine now. Much harder to kill. The Fuhrer will be bringing more of them to his front lines.

PATRIOT

I'll mention it to the president when I get back.

TOTENKOPF

I don't think you are going back. You heard the Schöne Frau. There must be a war.

PATRIOT

Are you like them?

Patriot indicates the occult soldiers.

TOTENKOPF

I am nothing like them.

PATRIOT

Good.

Patriot opens up with his pistols, emptying the magazines. Every shot is "absorbed" by Totenkopf.

PaTRiOT (CONT'D)

Well, hell, this could take all day.

TotENKOPF

One of your powers allows you to deflect the bullets. Mine absorb them and allow them to pass into an alternate dimension.

PATRIOT

Good to know. How about this one?

Patriot fast draws an unusual looking pistol and fires. A lightning bolt reaches out of the gun and lances toward Tontenkopf. For his part, Totenkopf raises his hand. A bolt of lightning leaps from his hand and crashes into the beam gun's discharge. Patriot releases he trigger.

TOTENKOPF

That won't work either.
